From 3 to 9 February, the Koenig Georg Kaserne was occupied by troops who wore red-bordered black spaulets. On 5 February, about 360 troops engaged in close-order drill and march practice in the barracks yard. Four trucks were seen in the yard.
From 3 to 9 February, the Kirchbach Kaserne was occupied by 300 troops. Sentries were red-bordered black epaulets. The quarters were fully lighted at dusk. About 40 soldiers drilled in the barracks yerd on 5 February. About 30 soldiers entered the installation from the direction of the water tower sabout 2 p.m.
Comment. The observations confirm the 112th Gds Mtz Rifle Regt as well as the 87th Gun Arty Regt of the 39th Gds Mtz Rifle Div as being stationed in their post until mid-February 1953. It appears that several-day exercises of combined arms with tanks were conducted near	25X1
the post. Another report indicated that tanks of the 220th Hv Tank SP Regt from Glauchen also participated in the field	25X1
